

- 2. Christ is my treasure, Christ my joy, I glory in his name alone, and death each barrier will destroy which keeps me from that glorious throne, where I shall see him face to face, while all his mercies I retrace.
- 3. Christ is the Bridegroom of my soul, in him are centered my desires now I have reached the wished-for goal, and my enraptured soul aspires to dwell with him (earth's troubles o'er) for ever, and for evermore!
