REPOSE IN GOD

(♩ = ca. 52)

E♭ B♭ E♭ B♭7 E♭

Thee would I trust, my God, and still each anx - ious fear;

A♭ E♭ C

thy hand can feed and clothe and keep, up - hold when, as through wa - ters deep,

Fm B♭ E♭ A♭

borne on, I find no help - er near. Since led by thee, with-out a - larm

B♭m E♭ A♭ C

life's devious way I tread, un-heed-ing death's noiseless shafts around me speeding;

Fm B♭m E♭ A♭ B♭m

with - out thy leave no power can harm. Thy love hath made me safe - ly dwell;

E♭ A♭

thy mer-cies, more than words can tell, have made my cup to o - ver - flow:

E♭ A♭ C7 F

hence-forth, since all to thee I owe, my joy shall be to give thee all;

Gm C7 F B♭ B♭7 E♭

to ban - ish fear, to trust thee still, in ev - ery need on thee to call;

E♭7 A♭o A♭ E♭

most blessed that thou shouldst work thy will:

C C7 Fm B♭7 E♭

so through the round of mor - tal days this heart and tongue shall give thee praise.

Words: Ray Palmer. Music: Johannes Thomas Rüegg.

Copyright © 2013 Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Source: www.christmysong.com/698/