FATHER, SON, AND HOLY GHOST

(♩ = ca. 124)

B♭ Cm

Fa - ther, whose hand hath led me so se - cure - ly,

C F F7 B♭

Fa - ther, whose ear hath lis - tened to my prayer,

Gm D Gm

Fa - ther, whose eye hath watched o'er me so sure - ly,

C C7 F F7

whose heart hath loved me with a love so rare;

B♭ G7 Cm G7 Cm

vouch-safe, O heaven - ly Fa - ther, to in - struct me

Cm7 F7 B♭

in the straight way where - in I ought to go,

D7 E♭

to life e - ter - nal and to heaven con - duct me,

B♭ F7 B♭

through health and sick - ness, and through weal and woe.

2. O my Redeemer, who hast my redemption purchased and paid for by thy precious blood,
thereby procuring an entire exemption
from the dread wrath and punishment of God,
thou who hast saved my soul from condemnation,
redeem it also from the power of sin,
be thou the Captain still of my salvation,
through whom alone I can the victory win.

3. O Holy Ghost, who from the Father flowest,
and from the Son, O teach me how to pray;
thou, who the love and peace of God bestowest,
with faith and hope inspire and cheer my way;
direct, control, and sanctify each motion
within my soul, and make it thus to be prayerful, and still, and full of deep devotion,
a holy temple worthy, Lord, of thee.

Words: Carl Johann Philipp Spitta. Translation: Richard Massie. Music: Johannes Thomas Rüegg.
Copyright © 2016, 2022 Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Source: www.christmysong.com/121/