E♭ Gm Cm F F7 B♭

be it ours thy grace to prove.

2. Art thou here! then have we blessing, art thou not! we nothing have;
all our god in thee possessing,
for thou only, Lord, canst save;
be thou present, be thou present,
this is what thy people crave.

3. Nothing have we, Lord, without thee,
but thy promise is our stay:
and thy people must not doubt thee,
Saviour, now thy power display,
and let gladness, and let gladness fill thy people's hearts today.

4. Gladness, Saviour, such as they have,
they, whose treasure is above;
this is what thy people may have;
truth is theirs, and faith and love.
Theirs a treasure, theirs a treasure that the world knows nothing of.
