THE SHADOW

2. When the Presence of my God brighter is than eye can see, shadow on the heavenward road, let me find my shade in thee.

3. When life's passions o'er me break like a storm against the wall, let me find, for mercy's sake, shelter where thy shadows fall.

4. Out of thee are shades of death, weary ways and hours unblessed, shadow of the Rock! beneath thee alone are joy and rest.

5. Till the race of life be run, till my soul in rest be laid, God of God, thou art my sun! Son of God, be thou my shade!
