

- 2. Oh feed me daily on the living bread, refresh me hourly with the living wine; oh satisfy my famished soul with food, and quench my thirst with fruit of the eternal vine.
- 3. Thy flesh is meat indeed, my God and Lord; thy blood is drink indeed for evermore: on thee alone I feed, of thee I drink, that into this sick soul the heavenly health may pour.
- 4. My life, my everlasting life art thou; my health, my joy, my strength, I owe to thee: because thou livest, I shall also live; and where thou art in glory, there I too shall be.
- 5. Thou with us, and thou in us, this is life; all that the Father is, in thee we see:O Christ of God, what art thou not to us, and what of wealth is there we may not find in thee!
- 6. Great All in all, eternal Word made flesh,
  Alpha and Omega, creation's King,
  the Church's Head, the Church's Bridegroom too, thee, blessed Saviour, thee we celebrate and sing.
- 7. Chief of ten thousand, lovely and beloved, the Rose of Sharon, ever fresh and fair, in thee is all created beauty found, all uncreated excellence is truly there.
- 8. O Christ, we praise thee for thy glory great, but for thy death of love we praise thee most; we praise thee, Son of the eternal God, we praise the Father too, we praise the Holy Ghost.

Words: Horatius Bonar. Music: Johannes Thomas Rüegg.
Copyright © 2014 Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Source: www.christmysong.com/511/