CONQUERING AND TO CONQUER

2. Her faithful sons, for love of thee, have dared opposing powers to brave; resolved from every bond to free the soul that thou alone canst save.

3. Still for the honour of thy name, O give thy servants strength to stand unmoved by foe, reproach or shame, a loving, trusting, dauntless band.

4. O gather to thy peaceful fold the lost that on dark mountains stray; let sinful souls that Cross behold whose blood can take their guilt away.

5. Let triumph crown thy holy cause, the last strongholds of darkness fall; the nations learn and keep thy laws, and own thee, Jesus, Lord of all!
