

- 2. By the trophy thou didst rear, keep thy servants joyful still, till the promised day appear, when thy name the earth shall fill.
- 3. Paschal Lamb, who from the dead didst with wakened saints arise, then our nature, in our Head, rose beyond the starry skies.
- 4. Thence, exalted, glorious Lord, God o'er all, yet man still known, thou shalt come, fulfilled thy word, seated on the judgment throne.
- 5. Lift our hearts thy joy to share, thou that shar'st the Father's seat; plunge us not to deep despair, when we rise our judge to meet.

Doxology.

6. This may the Father grant, with thee, and with the Spirit, – Holy Three, – One reigning God, whose throne shall last while glide eternal ages past!
