A CHILD'S ENQUIRY

 With children I can go, and all I think can say; with those I've often seen and know I do not fear to stay.

3. But Lord of heaven art thou, and dwell'st far off on high! Though at thy name I'm taught to bow, can I to thee draw nigh?

4. That Name is far above my thoughts, howe'er I try; how can I know thou dost me love, nor fear before thine eye?
