JESUS, I LOVE THEE EVERMORE

2. Let memory, then, no thought retain, except the glory of thy reign; nor let my mind desire below aught but the love of Christ to know.

3. I cannot have a wish or thought, except to love thee as I aught; what, by thy gracious gift, is mine, with joy I freely make it thine.

4. From thee I have, to thee I give, in thy commands, oh, let me live! My wants will then be all supplied, for all are only dreams beside.

Words: Erastus C. Benedict, translated from an anonymous Latin poem. Music: Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Copyright © 2014, 2017 Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Source: www.christmysong.com/93/