THE PILGRIM'S WANTS

2. I want every moment to feel that thy Spirit resides in my heart, that his power is present to cleanse and to heal, and newness of life to impart.

Romans 8,11+16.

3. I want, oh! I want to attain some likeness, my Saviour to thee!
That longed-for resemblance once more to regain, thy comeliness put upon me!

1 John 3,2-3.

4. I want to be marked for thine own, thy seal on my forehead to wear; to receive that "new name" on the mystic white stone, which none but thyself can declare.

Revelation 2,17.

5. I want so in thee to abide, as to bring forth some fruit to thy praise!
The branch which thou prunest, though feeble and dried, may languish, but never decays.

John 15,2+5.

- 6. I want thine own hand to unbind each tie to terrestrial things too tenderly cherished, too closely entwined, where my heart too tenaciously clings.

 1 John 2,15.
- 7. I want, by my aspect serene,
 my actions and words to declare that my treasure is placed in a country unseen,
 that my heart's best affections are there.

 Matthew 6,19+21.
- 8. I want, as a traveller, to haste straight onward, nor pause in my way no forethought, nor anxious contrivance, to waste on the tent only pitched for a day.

Hebrews 8,5-6.

9. I want - and this sums up my prayer - to glorify thee till I die; then calmly to yield up my soul to thy care, and breathe out, in faith, my last sigh.

Philippians 3,8-9.
