LINES FOR THE AGED

- 2. "Light is sown" for thee, and gladness, even in this vale of tears; soon will pass the night of sadness, grief will fly when morn appears: but still, to faith's illumined sight, "At evening time it shall be light."
- 3. Look not on the ills around thee; earth grows darker every hour; let not crime's increase confound thee; limited is Satan's power. Look on to regions pure and bright: "At evening time it shall be light."
- 4. Dwell not on the growing weakness that precedes thy frame's decay! Rise above depressing sickness; catch the dawn's approaching ray. Faith can discern the Day Star bright: "At evening time it shall be light."
- 5. See thy Saviour bending o'er thee, even to old age the same; set life's one chief end before thee, still to glorify his name; while on himself is fixed thy sight, "At evening time it shall be light."
