

2. The night of life is mournful – but look on – the dawn is near! Soon will earth's shadowy scenes and forms be gone, yield not to fear! The mountain's summit will, ere long, be gained and a bright world of joy and peace attained.

3. "Joyful through hope" thy motto still must be; the dawn is near! What glories will that dawn unfold to thee! Be of good cheer! Gird up thy loins; bind sandals on thy feet; the way is dark and long, the end is sweet.
