AWAYSIDE SONG

- 2. Thou dost in mercy wean thy little ones like me; thou makest earth a shaded scene, that thou our light mayst be.
- 3. I know that all is well; 'tis meet that faith be tried; 'tis mine thy faithfulness to tell; my footsteps thou dost guide.
- 4. My God, I joy in thee, of good the source divine; the thousand streams my song shall be, where love in light doth shine.
- 5. The city stands secure; my pilgrim days are few; through grace, thy grace, I shall endure, the end – thine end – in view.
- 6. Sustain me, lest I fall; direct thou still my feet; and let me give thee thanks for all, the bitter as the sweet.
- 7. I praise thee, blessed God, for ways I cannot trace, for all the wisdom of thy Word, the glory of thy grace!
