HAVE FAITH IN GOD

- 2. Whene'er the drooping flowers desire the promised rain and dew,O ye who of the desert tire, they have a voice for you!They whisper forth their every need beneath the blue of heaven; and thus should ye expectant plead till showers of grace are given.
- 3. Consider how the lilies grow!
 They neither toil nor spin;
 no anxious care those petals know
 their glory garb to win;
 the God who made them looketh down
 (the universe his care);
 the lonely flower the peopled town,
 his wide provision share.
- 4. Have faith in God, ye troubled hearts, his mercies why forget?
 Unfailing bounties he imparts, the oil cruse floweth yet.
 Bring empty vessels, not a few, bring more, and more, and more: 'tis all the work he bids you do; exhaustless is the store.
- 5. Ah, never fear a passing cloud!The sun doth ever shine.Let every heart in prayer be bowed, and nevermore repine.Your Father knoweth all your need, your faintest cry is heard;the sovereign Name wherein ye plead is changeless as the Word.

Words: Hannah K. Burlingham. Music: Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Copyright © 2014 Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Source: www.christmysong.com/1105/