THINGS UNSEEN ENGAGE US NOW

2. things of high importance too, things connected with our peace; yes, from these our comforts flow, all our chief delights from these.

3. Since we've known his precious name, who on earth sustained the cross, pomp and pleasure, wealth and fame, all the world is counted loss.

4. Better things appear in view, drawing us away from earth; shall we stoop then to pursue objects of inferior worth?

5. No: we'll leave the world behind, once the object of our love, and be satisfied to find rest among the saints above.
