"IF CHILDREN, THEN HEIRS"

- 2. His children's wants are well supplied, their Father gives them angels' food; no favour is by him denied, that, granted, will promote their good.
- 3. He saves them from their enemies, from snares by night, and force by day; he sees the arrow as it flies, and turns its course another way.
- 4. He smiles himself, and with his smile the bright inheritance is giv'n: what matter if the world revile, when God is pleased, and smiles from heav'n?
- 5. The heirs of heav'n may well forego the world's applause, nor feel the loss; the gold is theirs, and well they know the world's applause is worthless dross.
- 6, The sons of God, by heav'nly birth, a rich inheritance is theirs; for this, the highest throne on earth to them a place too low appears.
- 7. Their souls aspire to nobler things, beyond the world their portion lies; their father is the King of kings, and gives them everlasting joys.
