THE DAY OF GOD AT LENGTH APPEARS

- 2. Hark! 'tis the trumpet's awful sound; it shakes the pillars of the earth; its mighty voice is heard around:O where is now the worldling's mirth!
- 3. The Judge appears: around his seat ten thousand times ten thousand shine; the dead are quickened, small and great; the living changed by pow'r divine.
- 4. But mark the issue of the day!
 Some are received with joy to heav'n;
 while others, turned with shame away,
 from God and happiness are driv'n.
- 5. How blessed are they who welcome now, in him who fills the judgment-seat, the Saviour whom they loved below, and longed with great desire to meet.
- 6. Their cup is full, their joys abound, no wish unsatisfied have they; in seeing him their heav'n is found, and ev'ry sorrow flies away.
