

- From us his glory long lay hid, we loved the world as others did, no portion else had we; but he who first sent forth the light, the Lord removed our mental night, he gave us eyes to see.
- 3. His love supplies a boundless theme, then let us think and speak of him, who saves his people thus; he came in mercy from above, he came upon the wings of love, and gave himself for us.
- 4. Dear Saviour, let us never be, before the world ashamed of thee, nor shrink from duty's call: our work to do thee service here, our hope in glory to appear, where thou art all in all.
