WHEN TWO OR THREE TOGETHER MEET

- 2. The Lord is with his people there, wherever they are met to pray; he listens to their feeble prayer, and sends them not unblessed away.
- O be it, Lord, to us this day, according to thy gracious word!
 And send us not unblessed away, but pardon, peace, and strength afford.
- 4. We nothing have, but all is thine; while thou art rich, we cannot want; thine ear, O Lord, to us incline, and what thy people pray for, grant.
- 5. To love and serve thee better, Lord, this is the favour that we seek; thine all-sufficient help afford, and then we shall be strong, tho' weak.
- 6. Thus armed, to conflict we may go, and boldly meet the adverse pow'rs; thus armed, we need not fear the foe, for everlasting strength is ours.
