TO HEAVEN'S ETERNAL KING

2. He once was found with men,a man of sorrows he;he bore his people's sentence then,he bore it on the tree.

3. He suffered in their stead; he saved his people thus; the curse that fell upon his head. was due, by right, to us.

4. 'Twas love that brought him down, the purest, strongest love; he bore the cross, he won the crown, and now he reigns above.

5. The praise of saints be giv'n to him who worthy is; he died on earth, he lives in heav'n; eternal praise be his.
