grossed;

- 2. Lord, behold the sinner wand'ring far from thee, and far from peace: all his precious substance squand'ring in pursuit of earthly bliss; show him, Lord, that none can be truly blessed till brought to thee!
- 3. Let thy word go forth with power, spread abroad "the joyful sound";O our light, our strength, our tower, make thy glory known around; let the truth's resistless force stop the sinner in his course.
- 4. Of their Master's honour jealous, let thy people plead thy cause, in thy service bold and zealous, let them scorn the world's applause; whether men approve or blame, let them own thy glorious name.
