SING OF GRACE, THE GRACE OF JESUS

- 2. Sing his grace, we owe it to him, all we are, and hope to be."Wicked" were the hands that "slew him", though a willing victim he.
- 3. No man took his life, nor could he, 'twas his own, to give or keep; but he spared it not, nor would he,
- 8. Thou art worthy to receive it.
 "All is ours," if we are thine;
 'tis thy word, and we believe it.
 Saviour, on thy people shine.

7. Rich the grace is that we sing of;

What we have, the best we bring of,

Lord, we bring our all to thee.

glory to the Saviour be.

4. Freely did he die to have them safe from the destroying foe;'twas his life he gave to save them: what a debt, then, do they owe!

when required to save "his sheep".

9. This it is removes our sadness, when our hearts begin to sink.This imparts a holy gladness;Saviour, on thy people think.

5. Sing his grace, all ye who know it;'tis to you a joyful theme.Ye who have his Spirit, show it;live to him, and die to him.

10. Think of us, our Saviour, think of those whom thou hast thus far led; nor forsake us, till we drink of pleasure at the fountain head.

6. Jesus gives us life eternal; what have men, compared to this? Theirs the husk, but ours the kernel. Blessed his people's portion is.
