LET ALL WHO NAME HIS BLESSED NAME

- 2. "What kind of persons should they be," whose names appear enrolled above, the people whom the Lord makes free, to whom he manifests his love?
- 3. "What kind of persons should they be?"
 How blameless should their life appear,
 who hope the Lord in heav'n to see,
 and dwell with him for ever there!
- 4. With hopes so blessed and so bright, of heav'n they well may think and talk, and being children of the light, as children of the light should walk.
- 5. The sons of God, they well may scorn the highest honours here on earth, to heav'n's eternal honours born, to stoop would ill become their birth.
- 6. And when a few short years are past, what's promised now will then be giv'n; a goodly portion theirs at last, the glories and the joys of heav'n.
