DO THY DUTY FAITHFULLY

- 2. My duty is, all diligence to use, and promptness too, and instantly the work commence I know I ought to do.
- 3. My duty is, that I be true and just to every man, and that in all I have to do I do the best I can.
- 4. My duty! let that ever be my aim from day to day; nor in too many things let me throw time and strength away.
- 5. For should my fickle heart regard too many things, the one that else were easy would be hard, the hard would ill be done.
- 6. Then help me, that from day to day, with busy hand and true, the work appointed me I may unweariedly pursue.
- 7. O let my aim at all times be thy glory, Lord, and praise!
  Let me in all acknowledge thee, and thou direct my ways.

Words: Carl Johann Philipp Spitta. Translation: Richard Massie. Music: Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Copyright © 2010, 2016 Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Source: www.christmysong.com/143/