WHO SHALL CONDEMN THE LORD'S ELECT?

2. His saints find favour in his eyes, 'tis God himself that justifies; he cancels every charge with blood, his people they, himself their God.

3. Who shall condemn? 'tis Christ that died, 'tis Christ our Lord was crucified; yea, rather, who is ris'n again, his work, his off'ring not in vain:

4. who even sits at God's right hand, while wond'ring angels round him stand; who maketh intercession there, for all his ransomed people here.

5. What then shall part us from his love? Shall aught below, or aught above? Nay, since the Saviour died and rose, his saints shall vanquish all their foes.
