LOOKING UNTO JESUS

2. Bear Jesus Christ the Lord in mind, who sore by grief was tried; a ransom for our souls to find, upon the Cross he died: he vanquished sin and every foe, and saved us from eternal woe; then thank him for his love.

3. Bear Jesus Christ the Lord in mind, who, freed from grief and pain, a Conqueror death hath failed to bind, the third day rose again; the righteous acts of Christ the Lord have life and peace to man restored; then thank him for his love.

4. Bear Jesus Christ the Lord in mind, who, all his sorrows past, in sight of those he left behind, returned to heaven at last, there to prepare for us a place, where we shall always see his face; then thank him for his love.

5. Bear Jesus Christ the Lord in mind, who, from his throne above, once more will come, the Judge assigned both quick and dead to prove; take heed that thou mayst stand the test, and enter then his holy rest, to thank him for his love.

6. Lord, let me ever bear in mind, and let my faith embrace thy love to me and all mankind, and may thy cheering grace in hours of sorrow comfort give, and cause me after death to live, and thank thee for thy love.

Words: Cyriacus Günther. Translation: Frances Elisabeth Cox. Music: Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Copyright © 2016 Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Source: www.christmysong.com/1449/