

- 2. Where is balsam which assuages grief or pain's acutest smart?
 Where is counsel for all ages, comfort for the broken heart?
 Who revives the faint and weary?
 Who brings back the sheep that stray?
 Who, when long the way and dreary, is our guide, support, and stay?
 Christ, in whom all fulness is, can alone bestow all this.
- 3. Who gives joy in tribulation?
 Who enables us to bless
 God in every dispensation,
 and in all to acquiesce?
 Who the trust of children gives us,
 lays us on our Father's breast,
 from all needless care relieves us,
 shows us all is for the best?
 Christ, in whom all fulness is,
 can alone bestow all this.
- 4. Who gives us a childlike meekness and humility of mind?
 Calm endurance, strength in weakness, gentleness to all mankind?
 Love, which shuns no sacrifices, prompt to answer every call, and a heart which sympathises in the joy and grief of all?
 Ah! thank him who will and can give such grace to every man.

- over which death hath no power?
 Who makes us the heirs of heaven, and of joys for evermore?
 Who will raise again in glory what is here in weakness sown, and the frail and transitory clothe with beauty like his own?
 Ah! rejoice, for Jesus is he who can alone do this.
- 6. Thou who with the Father livest, and whose presence all things fills, who to all men all things givest, and in whom all fulness dwells, oh, how large the invitation which thou giv'st to all our race, to accept a free salvation, and partake of thy rich grace! Happy he who thus can taste all thou art, and all thou hast!
