THE LORD'S PROTECTION

2. Let thy grace always attend us, keep us ever in thy sight; mightily from sin defend us, be with us both day and night! Be to us a shield and sun, be our Life, till life is done!

4. Oh, how safe our habitations in the care of One so true! Never fail thy sweet compassions, every morning they are new; and thy mercies far exceed all that we can ask or need.

- 3. We are here but guests and strangers, thou art everywhere at home; bar our doors, secure from dangers, when we go and when we come: both our souls and bodies keep, when we wake and when we sleep.
- 5. Hallelujah! praise and glory should be paid by all to thee; heart and tongue with joy adore thee, here and in eternity, where with millions of thine own we shall stand before thy throne.
