SINNER, WILT THOU STILL GO ON?

- 2. Did some earthly int'rest call, wouldst thou, couldst thou careless be? Think of thine eternal all, sinner, what's the world to thee?
- 6. See the Lamb of God in pain! Pain like his has never been; this, in language clear an plain, speaks the true desert of sin.

3. Can the world remove thy sin?Can it set thy conscience free?Can it give thee peace within?Sinner, what's the world to thee?

7. But while justice gives the wound, mercy's voice is heard to say,"See the ransom I have found!Jesus is the living way."

4. Why, ah why provoke the Lord?Is thine arm omnipotent?Why despise his gracious word?why upon destruction bent?

8 Sinner, here is hope for thee, Jesus bore the sinner's shame; this is thy sufficient plea, life is in his saving name.

5. Canst thou still of sin make light, nor suppose the danger great?
See the cross! for there's a sight well explains thy awful state.
