AFTER THE HOLY COMMUNION

2. There is not one like thee, the best and truest friend to me;the heart can find no real rest, until it rests in thee;

3. till thou its doubts and fears remov'st, and makest it secure, that the same love wherewith thou lov'st for ever will endure.

4. Relying on thy word, O Lord, I sought thee and I found, for firm reliance on thy word with sure success is crowned.

5. Yes, thee I found, who in my heart dost hold the dearest place, my life, my joy, my peace who art, — who crownest me with grace!
