HAD DAVID DONE AS SAUL ADVISED

2. So we, when called to meet the foe, all human counsel must refuse; for man, though wise, can never know what arms we need, and ought to use.

3. Yet are we apt, too apt to try what arms supplied by man can do; but soon we throw such armour by, as useless, and as cumbrous too.

4. We learn to go as David went, confiding in the Lord of Hosts: a pebble and a sling, when sent by him, will silence hostile boasts.

5. They who in Israel's God confide may boldly venture to the field; the feeblest arms by him supplied are better than the sword and shield.
