

2. Bruisèd is the serpent's head, hell is vanquished, Death is dead, and to Christ, gone up on high, captive is captivity. Alleluia!

3. All his work and warfare done, he into his Heaven is gone, and, beside his Father's Throne, now is pleading for his own: Alleluia!

4. Asking gifts for sinful men, that he may come down again, and, the fallen to restore, in them dwell for evermore. Alleluia!

5. Sing, O Heavens! O Earth, rejoice! angel harp, and human voice, round him, in his glory, raise your ascended Saviour's praise. Alleluia!
