

- 2. If thy trust on Me dependeth, saith the Voice that comforts best, then my Presence shall go with thee, and my Joy shall give thee rest.
- 3. Human skill and human foresight vainly lead our footsteps here, if thy Presence go not with us, all is shadow, doubt, and fear.
- 4. If our ways by thee be ordered, and thy Name by us confessed, then thy Presence shall go with us, and thy peace shall give us rest.
- 5. Here are hope and goodly promise, fear and fainting hearts are there; if thy Presence go not with us, doubtfulness is everywhere.
- 6. If in all the eye be single, clean the hands, and pure the breast, then thy Presence shall go with us, and thy guidance give us rest.
