TIME AND ETERNITY

2. It is not truth that flies; 'tis we, 'tis we are flying: it is not faith that dies; 'tis we, 'tis we are dying. O ever-during faith and truth, whose youth is age, whose age is youth, twin stars of immortality, ye cannot perish from our sky!

3. It is not hope that flies; 'tis we, 'tis we are flying: it is not love life that dies; 'tis we, 'tis we are dying. twin streams, that have in heaven your birth, ye glide in gentle joy to earth: we fade like flowers beside you sown; ye are still flowing, flowing on.

4. Yet we but die to live; it is from death we're flying: for ever lives our life; for us there is no dying. We die but as the spring-bud dies, in summer's golden glow to rise: these be our days of April bloom; our July is beyond the tomb.
