I WILL PRAISE THE LORD AT ALL TIMES

2. Thou dwellest in thy Israël, enthroned 'mid praise and song, and my full heart shall also tell thy praises all day long.

3. Touch heart and lip with a live coal from thine own altar, Lord, that all thy mercies to my soul I may with joy record.

4. Keep constantly my heart and voice in tune to sing thy praise, and let all those therein rejoice, who listen to my lays.

5. Yea, let them love thee, and to thee sing hymns and praises too, and say to others, "Taste and see how good he is and true!"
