AS ON A VAST ETERNAL SHORE

- 2. Then roll thou back, in tidal waves, thanksgiving to his name; sing Christ, sing Christ, who loves and saves, who built thy mortal frame, my soul who built thy mortal frame.
- 3. Day follows day, night follows night; and ever on their wings
 Christ sends thee joy and peace and light; each hour a blessing brings, my heart each hour a blessing brings.
- 4. Then let each day become a song, and every night a hymn; each hour the song the hymn prolong, till tears thine eyes bedim, thrice blessed! Sweet tears thine eyes bedim.
- 5. Count up thy mercies, child of clay; recount them o'er and o'er; yet canst thou tell, in life's short day, the sands upon the shore, O child? The sands upon the shore?
- 6. Nay then, but thou in heaven shalt sing, sing songs to Christ for aye, exultant shall thy praises ring through an eternal day, glad heart through an eternal day!

Words: Elizabeth Prentiss. Music: Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Copyright © 2014 Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Source: www.christmysong.com/381/