TRUTH'S ANCESTRY

- 2. Only one fold! and to that fold the Shepherd brings his sheep; on the green pastures there, to feed them all, and with his, and with his staff to keep.
- 3. Only one way! one way for all the many wanderers; returning from a thousand various parts, through earth's long, through earth's long stormy years.
- 4. Only one city! and to that city his beloved come; brought by himself to find in it for ever their safe and, their safe and blessed home.
- 5. Only one Christ! and to that Christ the Father draws each eye, bidding them look, and in that looking live, that they no, that they no more may die.
- 6. Only one heaven! into whose glory he his own doth call; where all is sinless, sorrowless, and bright, where Christ is, where Christ is all in all.
