WHO TEACHETH LIKE HIM?

Unteach me all the errors I have learnt
in earthly schools; forgive self-will and pride:
I would unlearn all falsehood, learn the truth,
and with thy truth alone be satisfied.

3. O Truth of truth! to thee, my Lord, I come; teach me, oh teach, as thou alone canst do; Spirit of truth, come down and fill my soul, fill it with wisdom and with gladness too, –

4. the gladness of a glorious certainty, concerning him who lived and died and rose; this, this is true, should all else prove a lie, and in this truth my spirit finds repose.
