THOU LORD OF ALL, ON EARTH HAST DWELT

- But oh! how full of truth and grace through all thou dost appear!
 And thus with wonder we retrace thy path of sorrow here.
- 3. Thou on the cross didst suffer, too, more than man's eye could see; for then the wrath, that was our due, was poured, O Lord, on thee!
- 4. But thou art risen; and now we know that thou, in heaven above, for all God's children here below dost feel a brother's love.
- 5. Oh, may we ever look to thee for needed grace and strength, till we thy face in glory see, and reign with thee at length!
- 6. Till then may we, who bear thy name, thy blessed example take, and count the world's reproach and shame as glory, for thy sake.
- 7. Since thou the cup of wrath didst drain, none now for us is there; the drops of sorrow that remain, shall we refuse to share?

Words: Samuel Prideaux Tregelles. Music: Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Copyright © 2012, 2016 Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Source: www.christmysong.com/54/