LET US NOT REND IT

- 2. Let all be one! one Church, one faith, one love, one hope, one joy; one Bridegroom, and one holy Bride: this unity divine let none destroy.
- 3. One temple vast! builded of living stones by thine own hand; one household, and one brotherhood, knit all together by love's perfect band.
- 4. Let truth prevail! truth ever true, not shifting with the wind. We walk in light, as sons of noon, the shadows that divide us left behind.
- 5. Let love prevail!
  love, the most excellent of gifts divine;
  the love that seeketh not her own,
  long-suffering love, all-patient, Lord, like thine.
- 6. Let love prevail! the love that envies not, that thinks no ill, that faileth not, but ever lives, all things believing, hoping, bearing still.
- 7. So be it, Lord!
  even here on earth, where all things broken lie;
  so shall it be in love's own day,
  in love's own kingdom everlastingly.
