THE GLORY TO BE REVEALED

2. We miss him, but he comes not; he has gone to show his glory in more cloudless air: nothing is lost to him, for in that zone he puts on raiment more serenely fair.

3. So sinks the child of heaven, when to our eye he disappears; he does not die, but live. He has passed out beyond this narrower sky, diviner splendour to receive and give.

4. He sinks to rise; he sets to shine again in fairer heavens, and with diviner light; no more to set, or take on cloudy stain, or leave behind another world of night.

5. O cloudless heaven, in which we hope to shine, when we shall leave behind us this dim sphere!O glorious world, all holy and divine, where we shall sparkle through the eternal year!
