JESUS, HELP!

- 2. Its waters swell and eddy; I fall, I sink, I'm lost: oh keep my footsteps steady till I have safely crossed.
- 3. Stretch out thy hand to save me, as thou hast often done; for if thou wilt not have me, then I am wholly gone.
- 4. If thou, dear Lord, wilt have me, if thou wilt help my need, ah, this will save, will save me, and I am saved indeed.
- 5. A word from thee will do it, one word, one word, no more; I shall be carried through it, and landed on the shore.
- 6. Oh help me through this trial, thou tried and tempted One; I cannot take denial, thou m u s t, or I am gone.
- 7. 'Tis thou, thou, Saviour, only, that can suffice for me, for I am tried and lonely, I have no friend but thee.
