JESUS THE ALL IN ALL

- 2. When heavenward, o'er the flinty way,I tread with faltering feet and sore,and need some arm of strength to stay,O Jesus, help me evermore.
- 3. When faded, like autumnal leaves, my heart's best hopes all withered lie, and o'er the lost for earth it grieves,O Jesus, wipe the fearful eye.
- 4. When in the still retreat I kneel, to tell thee all I hope or fear, let no thick cloud thy face conceal:O Jesus, lend a listening ear.
- 5. When glows with joy my throbbing heart, and light and gladness round me fall, the sunshine of thy smile impart,O Jesus, brightest, best of all!
- 6. When springs my glad, unfettered soul, to seek her home beyond the spheres, thee will I praise while ages roll,O Jesus, mine to endless years.
