SABBATH MORNING WORSHIP

2. Let our thoughts from earth ascending hold communion with the skies; while before thee lowly bending, Lord, we lift our waiting eyes, pure and fervent, pure and fervent, let our prayer-like incense rise. Pure and fervent, pure and fervent, let our prayer-like incense rise.

3. While we seek thee, draw thou near us, let each heart thy presence feel; let thy grace refresh and cheer us, and each wounded spirit heal; lead us ever, lead us ever, till before thy throne we kneel. Lead us ever, lead us ever, till before thy throne we kneel.
