

- 2. Sweet is the confidence thou giv'st, though high above our praise; our hearts resort to where thou liv'st in heaven's unclouded rays.
- 7. We joy in thee; thy holy love our endless portion is – like thine own Son, with him above, in brightest heavenly bliss.

3. There in the purpose of thy love our place is now prepared, as sons with him who is above, who all our sorrows shared.

> 8. His Father thou, and ours thro' grace, we taste the same delight – blessed in the brightness of thy face, in heaven's unclouded light.

4. Eternal ages shall declare the riches of thy grace, to those who with thy Son shall share a son's eternal place.

> 9. Father! thy love my portion is, as son, like Christ, with thee; oh, who can tell of love like this, so sov'reign, full, and free!

5. Absent as yet, we rest in hope, treading the desert path, waiting for him who takes us up beyond the power of death.

> 10. O Holy Father, keep us here in that blessed name of Love, walking before thee without fear, till all be joy above.

6. Unchanging glory fills the place where Jesus dwells on high; but brighter joy our spirits trace with him, for ever nigh!

> Words: John Nelson Darby. Music: Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Copyright © 2012 Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Source: www.christmysong.com/679/