

- 2. There is rest in the tender love that has trodden our path below; that has given us a place in the realms of above, but can all our sorrows know.
- 3. There is rest in the calming grace that flows from those realms above; what rest in the thought we shall see his face, who has given us to know his love!
- 4. There is rest in the midst of grief, for grief's been the proof of love;'tis sweet in that love to find relief, when the sorrows of earth we prove.
- 5. There is rest in the Saviour's heart who never turned sorrow away, but has found, in what sin had made our part, the place of his love's display.
- 6. There is rest in the blessed yoke that knows no will but his; that learns, from his path and the words he spoke, what that loving patience is.
- 7. Where he too has gone before, is the path which we have to tread; and it leads to the rest where sorrow's over to the place where his steps have led.
