WHERE HIGH THE HEAVENLY TEMPLE STANDS

- 2. He who for men in mercy stood and poured on earth his precious blood, pursues in heaven his plan of grace, the Guardian God of human race.
- 3. Though now ascended up on high, he bends on earth a brother's eye; partaker of the human name, he knows the frailty of our frame.
- 4. Our Fellow-sufferer yet retains a fellow-feeling of our pains; and still remembers in the skies his tears and agonies and cries.
- 5. In every pang that rends the heart, the Man of sorrows had a part; he sympathizes with our grief, and to the sufferer sends relief.
- 6. With boldness, therefore, at the throne let us make all our sorrows known; and ask the aids of heavenly power to help us in this evil hour.
