

- 2. Most at home among the ransomed, in the Paradise of God; spirits of the just made perfect, through the one all-cleansing blood; most at home where holy gladness has its true and pure abode; most at home upon Mount Zion, city of the living God:

 most at home in heaven!
- 3. Most at home amid the glory of the everlasting throne; most at home amid the splendour of the one unsetting sun; most at home amid the praises of the never-silent throng, who through ages of the ages sing their never-jarring song: most at home in heaven!
- 4. Most at home in the high presence of the God on whom we call, of the Father, Son and Spirit, of the glorious All in all, where the song is "Holy, holy, God Almighty, great I AM," and the full responding chorus, "Worthy, worthy is the Lamb:" most at home in heaven!
- 5. Most at home within the bosom where the well-belovèd Son, in that Holiest of holies, dwells for ever with his own; most at home within that city where the light of living day has shut out all death and darkness, where all tears are wiped away: most at home in heaven!

Words: Horatius Bonar. Music: Johannes Thomas Rüegg.
Copyright © 2012 Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Source: www.christmysong.com/725/