"PRAISE GOETH UP TO THEE."

2. From every field and plain, from every flower and tree, from every stream and rill, praise goeth up to thee.

3. God of the heaven and earth, thou Lord of all we see, from this creation of thy hand, praise goeth up to thee.

4. From men of every clime, from lips of bond and free, from age and infancy, praise goeth up to thee.

5. From all that e'er hath been, from all that yet shall be, of thy vast handiwork, praise goeth up to thee.
